

THE LORD'S DAY IN WORSHIP

JUNE 19, 2016

MORNING WORSHIP

THE SILENT MEDITATION UPON ENTERING THE SANCTUARY

Father, silence all voices in our hearts and minds but Your own. Help us to seek and be able to follow Your will. Join our prayers and praises with those of our brothers and sisters in the faith. You always hear us. Help us to hear You.

The Call to Worship

Psalm 95:1-7

Mr. Howell

Minister: Oh come, let us sing to the Lord; let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation! Let us come into His presence with thanksgiving; let us make a joyful noise to Him with songs of praise!

People: For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods.

Minister: In His hand are the depths of the earth; the heights of the mountains are His also. The sea is His, for He made it, and His hands formed the dry land.

People: Oh come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before the Lord, our Maker! For He is our God, and we are the people of His pasture, and the sheep of His hand.

The Morning Prayers

The Silent, Personal Prayer of Confession

The Corporate Prayer of Confession

Awesome and compassionate God, You have loved us with unfailing, self-giving mercy, but we have not loved You. You constantly call us, but we do not listen. You ask us to love, but we walk away from neighbors in need, wrapped in our own concerns. We condone evil, prejudice, warfare, and greed. God of grace, as You come to us in mercy, we repent in spirit and in truth, admit our sin, and gratefully receive Your forgiveness through Jesus Christ, our Redeemer. Amen.

The Assurance of God's Pardon

Hear these comforting words: Christ is our peace. If you repent and trust in God's redeeming mercy, your sins are forgiven. Trust in God's promises and begin anew your life with God and all people, in the name of Jesus Christ.

A MESSAGE FROM SENIOR MINISTER, CLAUDE E. MCROBERTS, III

Dear Congregation,

I deeply miss you on the Lord's Days when I don't get to worship with you. Do you know that I have personally worshipped away from you only once (Reynosa, Mexico) since November?! I am of one accord with the Psalmist when he says, "My soul yearns, even faints for the courts of the Lord." My favorite earthly, physical "court" in which to worship is at Hull and Felder with the people of Trinity Church! You are a blessing! Betsy joins me in saying, we love each one of you very much. All that to say, I'll be away for four Lord's Days in a row: London missions trip, vacation, and an out-of-state wedding. I will miss you, pray for you, and anticipate our worship together again, Lord willing.

Claude

P. S. Please pray for us as well.

Call to Worship

Mr. Pendley

It is good to praise the LORD and make music to Your name, O Most High, to proclaim Your love in the morning and Your faithfulness at night, to the music of the ten-stringed lyre and the melody of the harp. For You make me glad by Your deeds, O LORD; I sing for joy at the works of Your hands. How great are Your works, O Lord, how profound Your thoughts! You, O LORD, are exalted forever.

I Will Glory In My Redeemer

The musical score is written in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 3/4 time signature. The melody is simple and hymn-like, with lyrics written below the notes. The lyrics are arranged in lines corresponding to the musical phrases. The score includes a variety of note values including quarter, eighth, and sixteenth notes, as well as rests. The lyrics are: I will glo-ry in my Re-deem-er Whose price-less blood has ran-somed I will glo-ry in my Re-deem-er; My life He bought, my love He I will glo-ry in my Re-deem-er Who car-ries me on ea-gle's me.
