

GOD'S GLORIOUS HOLINESS AND PERSECUTION

However, if the God we serve is blazingly and gloriously holy, then obedience to His will is not just a minor matter. He is passionately committed to our holiness and to saving a people for Himself, and thus He demands a commensurate commitment on the part of His church. The inheritance that He offers His saints is an eternity in experiencing the glory of that holiness. A God like this is worth leaving the comforts of Babylon for, to go and endure the difficulties of rebuilding Jerusalem. A God like this is worth struggling on through the difficult times for. He is worth leaving the security of our own comfortable homes, in order to go and labor for His kingdom in cities and towns and villages around the world, whether or not we see much of a response to our labors. A God like this is even worth giving up our lives for, if that is what it takes. After all, that is precisely what He was willing to do for us, in the person of Jesus, in order to save us from our sins. He left the comfort and ease of heaven and came down into this frustrating and difficult world. He labored on through the good times and the bad times, all the way to death on a cross. Such a God is worthy of great sacrifices.

MORNING WORSHIP

THE SILENT MEDITATION UPON ENTERING THE SANCTUARY

If once the curtain were pulled back and the spiritual world behind it came into view, it would expose to our spiritual vision, a struggle so intense, so convulsive, so sweeping, everything within its range, that the fiercest battle ever fought on earth would seem by comparison a mere game.

LOBE DEN HERREN

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!
O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation!
All ye who hear, now to His temple draw near,
join me in glad adoration.

Praise to the Lord! O let all that is in me adore Him!
All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him.
Let the amen sound from His people again;
gladly fore'er we adore Him.

Portions of Psalm 91

Mr. Curles

Minister: He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will abide in the shadow of the Almighty. I will say to the LORD, “My refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust.”

People: A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand, but it will not come near you.

Minister: For He will command His angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways.

All: Because he holds fast to Me in love, I will deliver him; I will protect him, because he knows My name. When he calls to Me, I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble; I will rescue him and honor him.

How Can I Keep from Singing
Chancel Choir

Taylor Davis

My life flows on in endless song above earth's lamentation.
I hear the real, though far off hymn that hails a new creation.
Through all the tumult and the strife I hear its music ringing.
It sounds an echo in my soul; How can I keep from singing?

While though the tempest loudly roars, the Lord, my Saviour liveth.
And though the darkness round me close, songs in the night He giveth.
No storm can shake my inmost calm, while to that rock I'm clinging.
Since Christ is Lord of heav'n and earth, how can I keep from singing?

When tyrants tremble sick with fear, and hear their death knell ringing, when friends rejoice both far and near, how can I keep from singing?
In prison cells and dungeon vile, our thoughts to them are winging, when friends by shame are undefiled, how can I keep from singing?

Benediction of God's Grace

Jesus, Cast a Look on Me

Jesus cast a look on me, give me sweet simplicity
Make me poor and keep me low, seeking only Thee to know.

All that feeds my busy pride, cast it evermore aside
Bid my will to Thine submit, lay me humbly at Thy feet.

Make me like a little child, of my strength and wisdom spoiled
Seeing only in Thy light, walking only in Thy might.

Leaning on Thy loving breast, where a weary soul can rest
Feeling well the peace of God, flowing from His precious blood.

In this posture let me live, and hosannas daily give
In this temper let me die, and hosannas ever cry!

Jesus, Let Us Come to Know You

Jesus, let us come to know You, let us see You face to face.
Touch us, hold us, use us, mold us, only let us live in You.

Jesus, draw us ever nearer, hold us in Your loving arms.
Wrap us in Your gentle presence, when the end comes bring us home.

Jesus, Name Above All Names

Jesus, name above all names; Beautiful Savior, glorious Lord.
Emmanuel, God is with us; Blessed Redeemer, Living Word.
