

*In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.*

*We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.*

*Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.*

—John McCrae, 1915

Remembrance Service

“Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.”

JOHN 15:13

*“Long years ago, as earth lay dark and still, rose a loud cry upon a lonely hill, while in the frailty of our human clay, Christ, our Redeemer, passed the self same way.
Still stands His Cross from that dread hour to this, like some bright star above the dark abyss;
Still, through the veil, the Victor’s pitying eyes look down to bless our lesser Calvaries.”*

JOHN S. ARKWRIGHT

*“Not only are they commemorated by columns and inscriptions,
but there dwells also an unwritten memorial of them,
graven not on stone but in the hearts of men.”*

My country, 'tis of thee, Sweet land of liberty, Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died, Land of the Pilgrim's pride,
From ev'ry mountainside, Let freedom ring.

My native country thee, Land of the noble free, Thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills, Thy woods and templed hills,
My heart with rapture thrills, Like that above.

Let music swell the breeze, And ring through all the trees Sweet freedom's song;
Let mortal tongues awake, Let all that breathe partake,
Let rocks their silence break, The sound prolong.

Our fathers' God to Thee, Author of liberty, To Thee we sing;
Long may our land be bright With freedom's holy light,
Protect us by Thy might, Great God, our King.

† The Confession of Our Sin (in unison)

Most holy and merciful Father, we acknowledge and confess in Your presence this day the sinfulness of our hearts and of our ways. We are not worthy of the sufferings of those who laid down their lives, for we have forgotten their sacrifice and have misused the freedom they preserved for us. Above all, O God, we have sinned against You, for we have lived unto ourselves, rather than unto Christ Who for our sakes died and rose again. Forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us, and deliver us from evil, and grant us Your peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

✠ The Hymn

America the Beautiful

MATERNA

O beautiful for spacious skies, For amber waves of grain;
 For purple mountain majesties Above the fruited plain!
 America! America! God shed His grace on thee,
 And crown thy good with brotherhood from sea to shining sea!

O beautiful for pilgrim feet, Whose stern impassioned stress
 A thoroughfare for freedom beat Across the wilderness!
 America! America! God mend thine ev'ry flaw
 Confirm thy soul in self-control, thy liberty in law!

O beautiful for heroes proved In liberating strife,
 Who more than self their country loved And mercy more than life!
 America! America! May God thy gold refine,
 Till all success be nobleness, and ev'ry gain divine!

O beautiful for patriot dream That sees beyond the years,
 Thine alabaster cities gleam Undimmed by human tears!
 America! America! God shed His grace on thee,
 And crown thy good with brotherhood, from sea to shining sea!

The Address

SERVICE OF REMEMBRANCE

The Honorable Joel F. Dubina

Judge Dubina was born in Elkhart, Indiana. He received a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Alabama in 1970, and a Juris Doctor from Cumberland School of Law at Samford University in 1973. He was a law clerk from 1973 to 1974 and in private practice from 1974 to 1983. Judge Dubina currently serves as Senior United States Circuit Judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit. He is married to Beth Gordy Dubina, and they have three children and seven grandchildren.

† The National Anthem

O! say can you see by the dawn's early light
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming.
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
O! say does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

O! thus be it e'er, when freemen shall stand
Between their loved homes and the war's desolation!
Blest with vict'ry and peace, may the heav'n rescued land
Praise the Power that hath made and preserved us a nation.
Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto: 'In God is our trust.'
And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

Mansions of the Lord

Glennie-Smith/Wallace

To fallen soldiers let us sing, Where no rockets fly nor bullets wing,
Our broken brothers let us bring To the Mansions of the Lord.

No more bleeding, no more fight, No prayers pleading through the night,
Just divine embrace, eternal light In the Mansions of the Lord.

Where no mothers cry and no children weep,
We will stand and guard though the angels sleep,
All through the ages safely keep The Mansions of the Lord.
