TRINITY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

MONTGOMERY, ALABAMA

NOVEMBER 25, 2018

*Come to Me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.
Take My yoke upon you, and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy, and My burden is light.*

† The Invocation

God of mercy, hear our prayer for ourselves, and for our families and friends who live with the struggles of illness, setbacks, confusion, suffering, and the pain of loss. We ask for strength for today, courage for tomorrow, and peace for the past. We ask these things in the name of Christ, who shares our life in joy and sorrow, death and new birth, despair and promise. Amen.

Interlude Children are dismissed to attend their classes.

Prayers of Confession and Assurance of Pardon

The Prayer of Confession (minister only)

Our Heavenly Father, we come to You this day to confess our weaknesses regarding our relationship with You; places where our faith is under sharp attack: You know that we come to You with heavy hearts that we find hard to unburden. It is particularly in this time of year when the darkness of long nights collides with the brilliance of Christmas lights, that we find it hard to express our losses, our fears, our doubts, and our struggles. We may be confused, sad, lonely, and feeling our losses without remembering that You are always there to support us. Father, forgive any bitterness or blame-shifting. Sometimes we feel cut off from You because we allow our many hurts to engulf us. We lack trust in You. Open us to the understanding that You are the source of all love, and we need not feel so alone in our grief. Grant us wisdom to know that You—most of all—can be trusted, and that You are with us, especially when we are at our absolute worst.

The Corporate Prayer of Confession

Minister: Lord Jesus, You heal the sick; have mercy.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Minister: Lord Jesus, You forgive sinners; have mercy.

People: Lord, have mercy.

Minister: Lord Jesus, You give Yourself to heal us and bring us strength;

People: Lord, have mercy.

The Assurance of God's Pardon Isaiah 61:1-3 (minister only)

The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me, because the Lord has anointed me to bring good news to the poor; He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to those who are bound; to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn; to grant to those who mourn in Zion — to give them a beautiful headdress instead of ashes, the oil of gladness instead of mourning, the garment of praise instead of a faint spirit; that they may be called oaks of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that He may be glorified

The Affirmation of Our Faith Romans 8:38-39 (in unison)

For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

The Prayer of Thanksgiving and Dedication

The Closing Prayer and Lord's Prayer

Lord, we pray for all who have been in attendance this night, that they all may have the inward anointing of the Holy Spirit. And for all those who have prayed - those who have shown mercy — those who have lifted their hands to You in thanksgiving and in supplication — for all present here, O God, we give thanks and ask that You continue with them day by day. Indeed, O Lord, keep us all from all evil, preserve us in all goodness. Bless us so that we may indeed bless others in Your most Holy Name — we ask it in the name of Christ Jesus — Who taught us to pray together as one family, saying: Our Father, Which art in heaven, hallowed by Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

† Closing Meditation In the Bleak Midwinter
Text: Christina Rossetti Music: Holst/Dvorak; arr. Keith and Kristyn Getty
(The congregation is invited to join in on Gloria Refrain)

In the bleak midwinter, frosty wind made moan,
earth stood hard as iron, water like a stone;
Snow had fallen, snow on snow, snow on snow,
in the bleak midwinter, long ago.

*Refrain: Gloria, Gloria! Now my eyes have seen; Soli Deo Gloria! He salvation brings.
As the Lord has promised, we may go in peace.*

Heaven cannot hold Him, nor earth sustain;
heaven and earth shall flee away when He comes to reign.
In the bleak midwinter a stable place sufficed
for the Lord God Incarnate, Jesus Christ. Refrain

What can I give Him, poor as I am?
If I were a shepherd I would bring a lamb;
If I were a wiseman I would do my part.
Yet what I can, I give Him: give my heart. Refrain

† The Benediction of God's Grace and the Congregation's AMEN

Now may the God of peace who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd of the sheep, by the blood of the eternal covenant, equip you with everything good that you may do His will, working in us that which is pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ, to Whom be glory forever and ever.
AMEN.

The Ministry of Prayer

Immediately Following the Worship Service

An Invitation

It would be the distinct honor and privilege of our ministers and session to pray over you individually in a more private venue. If you so desire, you may come to one of the rooms listed below, and you will be greeted by one of our ordained staff as well as a few of our elder-shepherds. Special prayer and intercession will be made on your behalf.

James 5:13-16

Is anyone among you suffering? Let him pray. Is anyone cheerful? Let him sing praise. Is anyone among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. And the prayer of faith will save the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up. And if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven. Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person has great power as it is working.

Locations

(1) The John M. Ward Session Room; (2) The Parlor; and (3) The John Knox Room. Any of these rooms may be easily found and accessed as you exit the sanctuary through the door by the lectern. Other staff will be available to direct you as well.

Advent Prayer of Lament

Lord, we look with hope for the day when there is no more grief,
no more sorrow, no more sin, no more death.
When you return, there will be no sickness,
no more weakness, no more anxiety,
no more failing strength,
but we will be made complete.
We will see You, and our souls will overflow with joy, worship, and blessings.

Here, we see things darkly,
our hopes are obscured by the suffering that surrounds us
and by the sinful longings of our own hearts.
We prefer comfort to holiness
and our hopes are set on temporary material things, rather than eternal promises.

Give us a hunger for heaven
by opening our eyes to how far we are from home.
Show us how unsatisfying this world is,
so we can find satisfaction in the Gospel and cling to Christ alone. Amen.
