

Lord's Day Vespers

EVENING WORSHIP AT 6:00 P.M.

We welcome the Harvest Arts Chamber Ensemble to our evening Vespers service. This Tennessee-based group of Christian musicians brings us a unique blend of traditional hymns and classical music for our edification and encouragement. Their program will be in two parts, at the mid-point of which Reverend Howell will read the Scripture lesson and give a homily. All are invited to a reception and an opportunity to meet the musicians immediately following the service in the Westminster Room.

The congregation is requested to hold applause until after the closing prayer.

Evening Scripture Lesson

Luke 16:1-8
pew Bible, page 1113

<sup>1</sup> He also said said to the disciples, “There was a rich man who had a manager, and charges were brought to him that this man was wasting his possessions. <sup>2</sup> And he called him and said to him, ‘What is this that I hear about you? Turn in the account of your management, for you can no longer be manager.’ <sup>3</sup> And the manager said to himself, ‘What shall I do, since my master is taking the management away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg. <sup>4</sup> I have decided what to do, so that when I am removed from management, people may receive me into their houses.’ <sup>5</sup> So, summoning his master’s debtors one by one, he said to the first, ‘How much do you owe my master?’ <sup>6</sup> He said, ‘A hundred measures of oil.’ He said to him, ‘Take your bill, and sit down quickly and write fifty.’ <sup>7</sup> Then he said to another, ‘And how much do you owe?’ He said, ‘A hundred measures of wheat.’ He said to him, ‘Take your bill, and write eighty.’ <sup>8</sup> The master commended the dishonest manager for his shrewdness. For the sons of this world are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than the sons of light.”
