The Morning Prayers

The Call to Confession of Sin

“Let every member of Christ’s Church, whether weak or strong, carefully avoid the sin of despising others.” —William Plummer

The Silent, Personal Prayer of Confession

The Assurance of God’s Pardon

Since then we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who in every respect has been tempted as we are, yet without sin. Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Angie Martin, soloist

Hark, I hear the harps eternal, Ringing on the farther shore,
As I near those swollen waters, With their deep and solemn roar.

Refrain:

Hallelujah, hallelujah, Hallelujah, praise the Lamb!

Hallelujah, hallelujah, Glory to the great I AM!

And my soul, tho’ stain’d with sorrow, Fading as the light of day,

Passes swiftly o’er those waters, To the city far away. Refrain

Souls have cross’d before me, saintly, To that land of perfect rest;

And I hear them singing faintly, In the mansions of the blest. Refrain

The Lord's Supper

The Invitation to and Fencing of the Table

Family of God, as we draw near to the Lord's Supper to celebrate Holy Communion of the Body and Blood of Christ, let us be grateful and remember that our Lord instituted this sacrament as a perpetual reminder of His dying for our sakes and as a pledge of His undying love for us.

Therefore, Jesus bids us to come to Him in this sacrament in knowledge, faith, repentance, love, and with hearts hungering and thirsting for Him. If we are willingly and stubbornly living in sin, lacking peace in our relationships with others, secretly relying on our own good works for favor with God, then we are warned by God's Word not to receive this sacrament.

But all that are truly sorry for their sins and long to be delivered from the burden of them; all that are weary from brokenness and long to be filled with the life of Christ; all that are doubting and need the assuring embrace of God; all that humbly put their trust in Christ and desire His grace that they may lead a holy life; and, all that are baptized members in an evangelical church, are invited and encouraged in His name to join us in the celebration of the Lord's Supper. Let us therefore come that we be refreshed and find rest for our souls.

If you are not in a saving relationship with God through Christ today, do not take the bread and cup, but take Christ and receive Him in your heart as those around you receive the meal. Then, immediately following the service, come and tell a minister or one of our leaders what you have done so we can prepare you to receive communion next time as a child of God.

Those participating in the meal are invited to come forward to receive communion. Please exit your pew into the center aisle as the usher leads and return to your pew by way of the outside aisle. One may consume the elements immediately or return to your seat to partake. Alternately, you may remain in your seat to receive communion and simply let the usher and elder know your wishes. Those who are in the balcony will approach the table first.

have needs for spiritual, physical, emotional, or relational healing.
Prayer requests will be shared with and prayed for privately with two or three
