MORNING WORSHIP

THE SILENT MEDITATION UPON ENTERING THE SANCTUARY

Lord, from sorrows deep I call, when my hope is shaken.

Torn and ruined from the fall, hear my desperation.

For so long I've pled and prayed: God come to my rescue.

Even so the thorn remains, still my heart will praise You.

Storms within my troubled soul, questions without answers.

On my faith these billows roll, God, be now my shelter.

Why are you cast down, my soul, hope in Him who saves you.

When the fires have all grown cold, cause this heart to praise You.

Should my life be torn from me every worldly pleasure?

When all I possess is grief, God, be then my treasure.

Be my vision in the night, be my hope and refuge.

Til my faith is turned to sight, Lord, my heart will praise You.

Refrain: And oh, my soul put your hope in God, my Help, my Rock, I will praise Him.

Sing, oh sing through the raging storm, You're still my God, my Salvation.

O Bread of Life, on You we feed, for You alone can meet our need.
Near to us in wine and bread, and may Your myst'ry 'round us spread.
O Bread of Life, on You we feed, for You alone can meet our need.

So holy, yet so commonplace, the bread and wine now filled with grace.
Throughout the day we are sustained by food and drink, by wine and grain.
O Bread of Life, on You we feed, for You alone can meet our need.

Go with us from this holy place, as we go forth to share Your grace.
Speak through us to the world in need, may we be true in word and deed.
O Bread of Life, on You we feed, for You alone can meet our need.
O Bread of Life, You meet our need.

We Commune with God at His Table

The Invitation to and Fencing of the Table

Family of God, as we draw near to the Lord's Supper to celebrate Holy Communion of the Body and Blood of Christ, let us be grateful and remember that our Lord instituted this sacrament as a perpetual reminder of His dying for our sakes and as a pledge of His undying love for us.

Therefore, Jesus bids us to come to Him in this sacrament in knowledge, faith, repentance, love, and with hearts hungering and thirsting for Him. If we are willingly and stubbornly living in sin, lacking peace in our relationships with others, secretly relying on our own good works for favor with God, then we are warned by God's Word not to receive this sacrament.

But all who are truly sorry for their sins and long to be delivered from the burden of them; all who are weary from brokenness and long to be filled with the life of Christ; all who are doubting and need the assuring embrace of God; all who humbly put their trust in Christ and desire His grace that they may lead a holy life; and, all who are baptized members in an evangelical church, are invited and encouraged in His name to join us in the celebration of the Lord's Supper. Let us therefore come that we be refreshed and find rest for our souls.

If you are not in a saving relationship with God through Christ today, do not take the bread and cup, but take Christ and receive Him in your heart as those around you receive the meal. Then, immediately following the service, come and tell a minister or one of our leaders what you have done so we can prepare you to receive communion next time as a child of God.
