LOBE DEN HERREN

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!
O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation!
All ye who hear, now to His temple draw near,
join me in glad adoration.

Praise to the Lord! O let all that is in me adore Him!
All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before Him.
Let the amen sound from His people again;
gladly fore'er we adore Him.

The Christian Greeting

The Offertory Anthem Climb to the Top of the Highest Mountain Carolyn Jennings
 Seraphim, Trinity Boys and Girls and Chancel Choirs with chamber orchestra

Climb to the top of the highest mountain, Joyous tidings proclaim to the world,
Lift up your voice, Shout the good news: Behold your Lord comes to you.

He will feed His flock like a shepherd, He will carry the lambs in His arms,
He will ever keep them safe from harm. Behold your Lord comes to you.

He who made the stars in the heaven, He who fashioned the earth and the sea.
From time eternal He was God, the Alpha and Omega, He. Behold your Lord!

He will come in power and glory, He will rule with mercy and truth,
Hope of all nations, Light of all the world, Light of all.

He will love the little children, He will hold them in His arms.
Love and trust Him as a child, Behold your Lord. Love Him, Trust Him as a child.

The Lord's Supper

The Invitation to and Fencing of the Table

Family of God, as we draw near to the Lord's Supper to celebrate Holy Communion of the Body and Blood of Christ, let us be grateful and remember that our Lord instituted this sacrament as a perpetual reminder of His dying for our sakes and as a pledge of His undying love for us.

Therefore, Jesus bids us to come to Him in this sacrament in knowledge, faith, repentance, love, and with hearts hungering and thirsting for Him. If we are willingly and stubbornly living in sin, lacking peace in our relationships with others, secretly relying on our own good works for favor with God, then we are warned by God's Word not to receive this sacrament.

But all who are truly sorry for their sins and long to be delivered from the burden of them; all who are weary from brokenness and long to be filled with the life of Christ; all who are doubting and need the assuring embrace of God; all who humbly put their trust in Christ and desire His grace that they may lead a holy life; and, all who are baptized members in an evangelical church, are invited and encouraged in His name to join us in the celebration of the Lord's Supper. Let us therefore come that we be refreshed and find rest for our souls.

If you are not in a saving relationship with God through Christ today, do not take the bread and cup, but take Christ and receive Him in your heart as those around you receive the meal. Then, immediately following the service, come and tell a minister or one of our leaders what you have done so we can prepare you to receive communion next time as a child of God.
