A FORGIVING SPIRIT

"Forgive us our sins, for we ourselves forgive everyone who is indebted to us."

LUKE 11:4

At a quick glance, this request may sound like a quid pro quo-that our forgiveness of others somehow earns us the right to be forgiven. If we allow the Scriptures to speak for themselves, however, we will recognize that the opposite is true. God forgives only the penitent – those who feel godly sorrow and repent of their sins. And what is one of the chief evidences of being penitent? A forgiving spirit! In other words, when we forgive one another, we don't earn forgiveness; we show that we have already been transformed by God's forgiving grace.

Jesus taught that it is inconceivable that we who have been forgiven so much should refuse to forgive the debts of others against us (Matthew 18:21-35). Yet we're still tempted to hold grudges, stay angry, to "forgive but not to forget." D. L. Moody is said to have compared that idea to somebody who buries the hatchet but leaves the handle sticking out.

An unforgiving spirit is perhaps the greatest killer of genuine spiritual life. We shouldn't claim to be seeking God if we actively harbor enmity in our hearts against our brothers and sisters. It will extinguish the flame of Christian joy and make it nearly impossible to benefit from the Bible's teaching. It is no surprise, then, that Jesus essentially says, "What I'm saying about a forgiving spirit is a fundamental element of believing prayer. Check your life for it."

Are you bearing a grudge or replaying someone's wronging of you in your mind? Is there someone you have failed to forgive? Reflect on the forgiveness you have received, and ask God to teach and enable you to forgive. For in your forgiveness of the sins of others against you, you reveal that you understand His grace and have been truly forgiven by Him.

How can Your pardon reach and bless the unforgiving heart that broods on wrongs and will not let old bitterness depart? In blazing light Your cross reveals the truth we dimly knew, how small the debts men owe to us, how great our debt to You. Lord, cleanse the depths within our souls, and bid resentment cease; then, reconciled to God and man, our lives will spread Your peace.

The Striking of the Hour

The Choral Introit

How Can I Keep from Singing?

Covenant Choir

My life goes on in endless song, above Earth's lamentation.
I catch the sweet, though far-off hymn that hails a new creation.

Refrain: No storm can shake my inmost calm while to that Rock I'm clinging Since Christ is Lord of Heaven and Earth, how can I keep from singing?

The peace of Christ makes fresh my heart, a fountain ever springing.
All things are mine since I am His! How can I keep from singing? Refrain

Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the Earth! Serve the Lord with gladness! Come into His presence with singing! Know that the Lord, He is God! It is He Who made us, and we are His; we are His people, and the sheep of His pasture. Enter His gates with thanksgiving, and His courts with praise! Give thanks to Him; bless His Name! For the Lord is good; His steadfast love endures forever, and His faithfulness to all generations.

† The Prayer of Invocation

† The Lord's Prayer

Our Father Which art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy Name.
Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil:
for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

† The Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen, amen.

SEEKING GOD'S FACE

The Corporate Prayer of Confession – The Valley of Vision

O Lover of the loveless, it is Your will that we should love You with all our heart, soul, mind, strength, and our neighbor as ourselves. But we are not sufficient for these things. There is, by nature, no pure love in our souls; every affection in us is turned from You; we are bound, slaves to lust, we cannot love You, lovely as You are, until You set us free. By grace we are Your free men and would serve You, for we believe You are our God in Jesus, and that through Him we are redeemed, and our sins are forgiven. With this freedom, we would always obey You, but we cannot walk in liberty, any more than we could first attain it, of ourselves. May Your Spirit draw us nearer to You and Your ways. Spirit of Love, make us like the loving Jesus; give us His benevolent temper, His beneficent actions, that we may shine before men to Your glory. The more You do in love in us and by us, humble us the more; keep us meek, lowly, and always ready to give You honor.

The Assurance of God's Pardon – I John 1:9

Child of God, hear the good news. If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. Believe the gospel. Live in peace.

Oh Holy Jesus

Jonathan Willcocks

Izzy Woodham, flute; Laura Nabholz, clarinet

O Holy Jesus, most merciful Redeemer,
may I know Thee more clearly, love Thee more dearly,
and follow Thee more nearly, day by day. Amen.

The Prayer of Illumination

† The Reading of God's Word

I John 1:4-7; I Thessalonians 2:17-3:5

4 And we are writing these things so that our joy may be complete. 5 This is the message we have heard from Him and proclaim to you, that God is Light, and in Him is no darkness at all. 6 If we say we have fellowship with Him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. 7 But if we walk in the Light, as He is in the Light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus His Son cleanses us from all sin.

17 But since we were torn away from you, brothers, for a short time, in person not in heart, we endeavored the more eagerly and with great desire to see you face to face, 18 because we wanted to come to you—I, Paul, again and again—but Satan hindered us. 19 For what is our hope or joy or crown of boasting before our Lord Jesus at His coming? Is it not you? 20 For you are our glory and joy.

3 Therefore when we could bear it no longer, we were willing to be left behind at Athens alone, 2 and we sent Timothy, our brother and God's coworker in the gospel of Christ, to establish and exhort you in your faith, 3 that no one be moved by these afflictions. For you yourselves know that we are destined for this. 4 For when we were with you, we kept telling you beforehand that we were to suffer affliction, just as it has come to pass, and just as you know. 5 For this reason, when I could bear it no longer, I sent to learn about your faith, for fear that somehow the tempter had tempted you and our labor would be in vain.

All men are like grass, and all their glory is like the flowers of the field.

The grass withers and the flowers fade,
but the Word of our God shall stand forever. Amen.

The Postlude

Gospel Prelude - What a Friend We Have in Jesus

William Bolcom

*“This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you.
Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends.
You are My friends if you do what I command you. No longer do I call you servants, for the servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, for all that I have heard from My Father I have made known to you.*

John 15:12-15

Love divine, all loves excelling, Joy of Heav'n, to Earth come down:
fix in us Thy humble dwelling, all Thy faithful mercies crown:
Jesus, Thou art all compassion, pure, unbounded love Thou art;
visit us with Thy salvation, enter ev'ry trembling heart.

Breathe, O breathe Thy loving Spirit into ev'ry troubled breast;
let us all in Thee inherit, let us find the promised rest:
take away the love of sinning; Alpha and Omega be;
End of faith, as its Beginning, set our hearts at liberty.

Come, Almighty to deliver, let us all Thy life receive;
suddenly return, and never, nevermore Thy temples leave.
Thee we would be always blessing, serve Thee as Thy hosts above, pray, and praise Thee, without ceasing, glory in Thy perfect love.

Finish, then, Thy new creation; pure and spotless let us be:
let us see Thy great salvation perfectly restored in Thee;
changed from glory into glory, till in Heav'n we take our place, till we cast our crowns before Thee, lost in wonder, love, and praise.
