just a word from Mr. Mac

Claude E. McRoberts, III · Senior Minister

Dear Children,

Fill in the blanks from the hymns and stanzas listed below:

No. 573 ~

"Am I a _____ of the cross, a follower of the Lamb?"

No. 572 ~

"Onward, _____ soldiers, marching as to _____, with the _____ of Jesus going on before: Christ our royal _____ leads against the foe; forward into _____, see, his banners go.

Onward, _____ soldiers, march as to war, with the _____ of Jesus going on before.

No. 571 ~

Stand up! Stand up for _____, ye soldiers of the cross; lift high His royal _____, it must not suffer loss; from victory unto victory His _____ He shall lead, till every foe is vanquished, and Christ is _____ indeed.

No. 575 ~

Soldiers of Christ, _____, and put your _____ on, strong in the strength which God supplies through His eternal _____. Strong in the _____, and in His mighty power, who in the strength of Jesus _____ is more than conqueror.

Well, I guess you get the idea: we are Christian soldiers, and we fight a battle FOR Jesus against our enemy. And we all fight in this battle from the youngest to the oldest. And it doesn't matter how old you are, we all fight by praying, reading God's Word and obeying it, coming to worship, listening the sermon, and singing hymns.

I love you, and I look forward to seeing you today!

Mr. Mac

Doxology

Silent Reflections/Meditation

OR, Suggested Questions from the Morning Sermon

- What does it mean to stand firm? [Parents, maybe get the children to try to knock dad down or move him from his position.] How is it that we stand firm spiritually?
- Read and discuss: John 18:36
- Why do find our strength in the Lord AND have to put on armor? What's the armor for? How does God use the armor to protect us?
- What is the belt of truth? What did it mean back when Paul wrote this to "gird your loins?" What does that mean to us today from this passage?
- What sorts of things does Satan do to try to trick us? What is temptation? How can we fight temptation?

Where Do Our Missionaries Live and Work?

My name is Wy Plummer and I am the African American Ministries Coordinator for the Presbyterian Church in America. The ministry's chief aim is to plant new PCA churches led by African Americans throughout North America, as well as to encourage African Americans to prepare for leadership in the PCA and to assist them in funding their education.

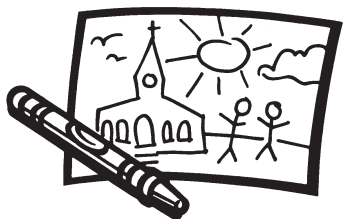

My wife Shirley and I have been in the PCA since 1982, and I was ordained as a PCA pastor in 1995. In addition to my position as MNA African American Ministries Coordinator, I also serve as a part-time pastor at New City Fellowship, Chattanooga TN, and am a member of the Advisory Board of Covenant Theological Seminary. I earned my undergraduate degree from Howard University and graduate degrees from Johns Hopkins University and Chesapeake Reformed Theological Seminary.

Sermon Art

Use this page to illustrate something that Mr. Mac preaches on during the sermon this morning.

Would you like for your artwork to be considered for the front cover of next week's bulletin? If so, either give it to any of the pastoral staff or have an adult to put it in the mailbox for Sermon Art in the church office.

The Sermon Art mailbox is located on the bottom left hand side of mailboxes in the church office.

MUSIC and HYMNS

Make a joyful noise unto the Lord...

#585

“Take My Life, and Let It Be”

In 1874 a lady named Frances Havergal was visiting in the home of a friend where there were several visitors who either didn't know Christ or who were only half-hearted believers. She talked to them about what a comfort and joy to have Christ as their Savior, and several believed. What a time of rejoicing for all! She went home that night, prayed earnestly, and wrote this hymn, as she was just too happy to sleep! Those who knew her described her as “one whose life was consecrated to loving and joyful service.”
