Claude E. McRoberts, III · Senior Minister

Dear Children,

We are going to sing a song this morning that I think you know pretty well: "I Love You, Lord." These are the words:

I love You, Lord, and I lift my voice to worship You.
O my soul, rejoice! Take joy, my King, in what You hear:
May it be a sweet, sweet sound in Your ear.

We love Him because He first loved us. We adore Him because He has given us a helmet of salvation to wear.

That sounds kinda strange, doesn't it? That He would give us a helmet to wear!

But this is no ordinary helmet. This helmet is a helmet of love that protects us. This helmet reminds us that we are God's children; that He loves us; that we are safe and secure; that our enemy cannot have victory over us; that He cannot discourage me or make me doubt or be frightened.

It's a wonderful helmet. We've already put on a breastplate of righteousness, a belt of truth, shoes of the Gospel, and a shield of faith. Now we put on a helmet of salvation.

What great weaponry! What wonderful things God has given us! Indeed, "I love You, Lord, and I lift my voice to worship You!"

I hope you have a great day in worship today.

I love you,

Mr. Mac

An Opening Statement

Head of the Home

Oh come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before the Lord, Our Maker!
Know that the Lord, He is God! It is He who made us, and we are His;
we are His people, and the sheep of His pasture.

- What is discouragement? What does it mean to doubt?

Final Hymn or Song

The Head of the Home

Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, to the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever.

So, go forth into the world in peace; be of good courage; hold fast that which is good; render to no man evil for evil; strengthen the fainthearted; support the weak; heal the afflicted; honor all men; love and serve the Lord, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit. God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit, preserve and keep you until the day breaks and all these shadows flee away.

MISSIONS

Around the World and Here at Home

Where Do Our Missionaries Live and Work?

Alonzo and Antoinette both graduated from Alabama State University where they were involved with the college ministry as students. Alonzo came to Christ as a freshman on the A.S.U. football team; Antoinette was led to the Lord as a high school senior. Two weeks after they were married they joined the Campus Outreach at ASU and then later at Tuskegee University. This ministry trained students in evangelism and life-on-life discipleship. Through these experiences in college ministry, God has called Alonzo and Antoinette to take what they've learned and apply these experiences to reach young and old in a neighborhood community. They joined the staff of Common Ground Montgomery during the spring of 2009. That ministry started a church plant in September 2011 where Alonzo now serves as assistant pastor. Alonzo and Antoinette have three children.

MUSIC and HYMNS

Make a joyful noise unto the Lord...

347 “The Church’s One Foundation”

This hymn compares the church to a city with a foundation built on Christ the Lord. What else do you see the church compared to in verse 1 of this hymn? Verse 2 then tells us how the elect are really one people bound by one holy name, one holy food, and one hope, even though we might live all over the world. Verse 3 tells how the world views the church and describes the hardships we the saints must endure. It then assures us we, the church, shall never perish! Verse 4 tells how the church on earth in united with the three members of the Trinity, and how we may look forward to dwelling with God some day.

“Fairest Lord Jesus”

Even though called “The Crusader’s Hymn”, it contains no comments on persecution, but only praise to a wonderful Savior. Whoever wrote the hymn was close to nature and adored God’s creation, but recognized that even fairer than the creation is the Creator. No matter how magnificent all of nature is to behold, Jesus is far more wonderful than any of God’s creations. He is “fairer, brighter, and purer” than even the angels themselves! Let us be sure we worship the CREATOR-----not the world He has CREATED.
