Just a word from Mr. Mac!

Claude E. McRoberts III • Senior Minister

Dear Children,

As I write this at the end of August, Texas is receiving more rain and flooding than has ever been recorded in the history of our country. Over FIFTY inches of rain has fallen in parts of Texas – and that rain will effect Louisiana and Mississippi. We will see some of it this week.

On ALL the TV channels there are stories of rescues. Thousands of people have reached out trying to rescue those stranded in their homes or cars.

When I was growing up, we had a really bad flood in Jackson, MS. The flood was in 1979. There was actually another one, but it was not as bad as 1979. My school was under water. We were out of school for three weeks. We rode around in boats trying to help people; we put sandbags around people's houses trying to keep the water out; I was even part of a crew that went into a doctor's office in a boat trying to save his equipment.

That's what Jesus has done for us: rescued us!

From what has He rescued us? Our sin. Eternal punishment (hell).

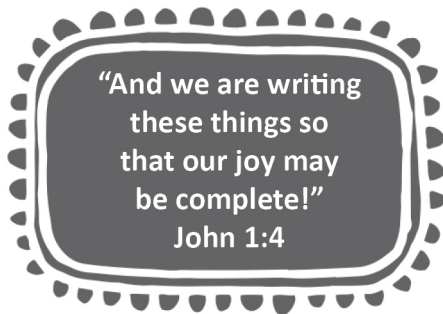

To WHOM has He rescued us? He rescued us to be His Father's children. And interestingly enough, He rescued us to be our husband. I know that sounds strange, but the Church/believers/Christians are called the Bride of Christ. And He loves His Bride so much that He died for her. Then He was raised to life. And one day Jesus is going to come back and rescue us (again) from this world and take us to heaven to be with Him forever!

He loves you so much!

Hope you have a great day today! And hope you enjoy worship and Sunday School.

Oh, how God loves YOU!!!

Mr. Mac

An Opening Statement

Head of Home

Blessed be the LORD, my rock, who trains my hands for war, and my fingers for battle; He is my steadfast love and my fortress, my stronghold and my deliverer, my shield and He in whom I take refuge, who subdues peoples under me.

Psalm 144:1-2

Hymn Suggestions

My Hope Is Built on Nothing Less • The Power of the Cross

• Man of Sorrows, What a Name • Isaiah 43 •

How Deep the Father's Love for Us • Jesus, Keep Me Near the Cross

All of these should be (or could be) familiar. We sing some of them on Sunday night at evening worship. But ALL of them can be found on YouTube, and the words are either in our hymnal or printed in the bulletin.

Scripture Reading

Read Romans 7:1-6

Silent Reflections/Meditation

OR, Suggested Questions from the Morning Sermon

- What is Paul's simple illustration about our union with Christ? (7:2-3) Marriage
- Mom and Dad, this illustration and then subsequent line of reasoning is very complex for adults, much less children. Perhaps you could emphasize the following: we are married to Jesus • He loves us so! • we should WANT to please Him just like a wife wants to please her husband.
- Mom and Dad, you could easily take Mr. Mac's sermon outline and make your way through the "various and sundry applications" listed in the conclusion.
- What about using the illustration Mr. Mac used about those in prison seeing those on the outside driving by or riding by on a train ~ sure, they have their own set of problems, but they are not in prison; they are free!! We are free from the law; not imprisoned by the law. Our train stays on the track; we obey the rules of the road; but, we do so with freedom and out of respect.

Child Evangelism Fellowship

Child Evangelism Fellowship (CEF) is a worldwide organization dedicated to seeing every child reached with the Gospel of the Lord Jesus, and then disciplined and established in a local church.

One of their best-known ministries is called Good News Club. These clubs meet in public schools after regular classes. Twenty of these clubs are in Central Alabama. Trinity Church sponsors a Club at Forest Avenue Elementary Magnet School. Each week the volunteers from Trinity Church present an exciting Bible lesson, songs, Scripture memory, a missions story and fun games. The Club is like Sunday School except that it is on Tuesday afternoon.

CEF also sponsors Wonderzone on the internet for anyone to use. There are games, songs, activities, adventures and devotionals to help you grow in your walk with Jesus. See www.Wonderzone.com.

Write a letter to our missionaries!

Would you like to write a letter encouraging our missionaries or thanking them for the work they do for God? A letter from you would make their day! If you would like to write a letter to the missionary or family shown this week, please write in the space provided below and put it in Mr. Tom's box. He will make sure they receive it!

Dear Good News Club,

Music and Hymns

#247 "O Sacred Head, Now Wounded"

This hymn praises and thanks Jesus Christ for dying on the cross for our sins. The author of this hymn declares: "Tis I deserve Thy place." Jesus stood in our place. He took the punishment for our sins and He paid the full price for our freedom. Let this be your prayer: "Lord, let me never, never outlive my love to Thee." How can we ever thank Him for such a sacrifice? The hymn writer asks, "what language shall I borrow to thank Thee, dearest Friend?" Can you think of some ways you can thank Jesus for dying for you?

"The Power of the Cross"

Do you know the power of the cross? Without the cross, you and I would still be cursed by the law. Without the cross, there would be no salvation. Jesus died on the cross for our sins. He did it before you were ever born and before you ever had the chance to sin because He loves you and He chose to die for you. Verse 4 says "Oh, to see my name written in the wounds..." Isaiah 49:16 says "Behold, I have engraved you on the palms of my hands." Isn't that amazing! Praise God for His son dying on the cross for your sins!

"He was pierced for our transgressions,
He was crushed for our iniquities."

Isaiah 53:5

Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another in all wisdom, singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, with thankfulness in your hearts to God.
Colossians 3:16

You Belong to Christ

Did you know you belong to Christ?

...you also have died to the law through the body of Christ, so that you may belong to another, to Him who has been raised from the dead, in order that we may bear fruit for God.

Romans 7:1-6

My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand.

John 10:29

But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for His own possession

1 Peter 2:9

See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God

1 John 3:1

If you are a follower of Jesus Christ, you can rest assured that you are His and that nothing will change that.
