Just a word from Mr. Mac!

Claude E. McRoberts, III • Senior Minister

Dear Children,

Let's think of some things of which we are sure... certainties of life:
For example, I am certain that the President of the United States is Donald Trump.
Another example: I am sure/certain that we are now at Trinity Church worshipping God.

Can you help me keep a list going of things for which we are certain?

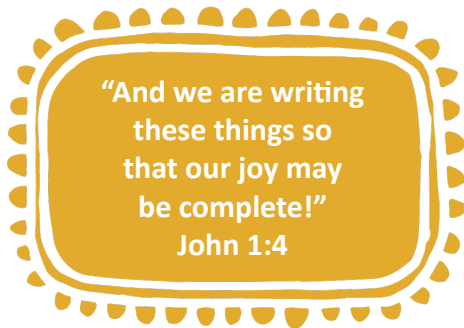

1. There was a World War II
2. Man has walked on the moon
3. Airplanes fly in the air
4. Hippopotamuses are heavy animals

What would you add to our list?

- 5.
- 6.
- 7.
- 8.

Okay. Now let me ask you this: how many of you included the resurrection of Jesus Christ? In your list, did you put as something you know for sure that Jesus was raised to life? Is that something of which you are certain? I'm sure it is. Because we know that Jesus rose from the dead and that He is indeed alive this very day, we can therefore be certain of other things as well. For example, I can be certain that everything the Bible says about Him is true. Also, I can be certain that His promises are true; and He promises never to leave me nor forsake me. And finally, I can be sure that I will live forever with Him in heaven. Listen this morning on this Easter Lord's Day morning to the sermon and learn why it is we say that we are sure of certain things about Jesus all because He was risen from the dead.

I do love you,
Mr. Mac

Do you have a:

A Guide to Family Worship
April 2-7, 2018

THE SIMPLEST OUTLINE FOR FAMILY TIME EVER!!!
10 EASY STEPS

- #1 Just make sure you gather once a day as a family.
- #2 Try really hard to make the same time every day.
- #3 It does not have to be long; it does not have to be perfect.
- #4 Read a Bible verse. Maybe a devotional.
- #5 Sing a song or two together.
- #6 Take prayer requests.
- #7 Pray. (Daddy, your children NEED to hear you pray.) Pray for the children; pray for missionaries; pray for Trinity Church; give thanks.
- #8 Everyone tell one thing they are thankful for.
- #9 Have a Leader of the Day: they get to read and/or pray and/or tell everyone to come gather and/or put out the Bibles/hymnals and/or tell something that happened to them that day.
- #10 Dad, pray this over your children: Numbers 6:24–26
The LORD bless you and keep you; the LORD make His face to shine upon you and be gracious to you; the LORD lift up His countenance upon you and give you peace.

Meet Our Missionaries!

Trinity Church Serving Jesus in Montgomery

Our Missions Ministry this week is about Montgomery and each one of us at Trinity Church. We gather on Sundays to worship God, but during the rest of the week, we are away from church in neighborhoods, schools, work places, restaurants, athletic fields and all the other places we go.

Whether you were born here or your family moved from another place, God put you in Montgomery. One of His purposes for each of us is to tell the people around us about Jesus, how He gave His life as a sacrifice to reconcile us to God, and gave us eternal life with Him that begins now. He even sent His Holy Spirit to help us obey Him and tell other people about Him.

As you celebrate Jesus' resurrection to life and the new life that you have in Him this Easter, would you talk with your family about how you can share this Gospel with other people you already know who don't know Him? Jesus' Great Commission to His disciples and us is to make disciples of all nations including the people right around us. How could you obey that command from Him where you live and play?

Music and Hymns

#283 "Allelujah, Allelujah"

The author, Christopher Wordsworth, a nephew of the 18th century English poet, William Wordsworth, was born in 1807 and educated at Cambridge University, receiving high honors for his academic accomplishments. He was known throughout England as an outstanding scholar, a tireless worker, and a voluminous writer.

Among his writings is a collection of 127 hymns published in a hymnal (1862) called The Holy Year. These hymns were written by Wordsworth to illustrate his convictions that hymns should not deal with personal, individual interests, but rather should teach the truths of Scripture and voice the worship of the entire congregation.

He also believed it was the first duty of the hymnwriter to teach sound doctrine to believers and to reach the unsaved with the gospel. This hymn is based on a verse from 1 Corinthians 15 which says "Christ has indeed been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep." In it, honor is given to Christ, who was the first to have victory over the grave and who will, at his second coming, give victory over death to all believers.

#277 "Christ the Lord Is Risen Today"

The grave has been "boasting" of its power since Eden. But now it has finally met its match. It wraps Jesus up at the Cross and "forbids Him rise," but our Champion, Jesus Christ, fought and won.

Where is your sting now, O Death?

Christ has won the final victory!

"Thanks be to God! He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ."
