Stacy Hamilton • Director of Children's Ministries

Dear Children,

This Lord's Day is the beginning of our 44th annual Missions Conference. We're doing things a little differently this year! This Wednesday night, I hope that you 1st-5th graders will join us in Kid's World and play "Who Wants to be a Missionary?!?" Join us in The Frith for an evening of fun games. You might even learn a thing or two!! In addition to games, we will be interacting with the children of Trinity's own missionaries by video chat. Preschoolers will also have fun while learning about missionaries and making a craft in Room 105 in the Covenant Building.

I'm often asked how children can help our missionaries. One thing that you can do to help our missionaries is to send money. You will be given a Faith Promise card today at Sunday School. You can earn Faith Promise money by doing some extra chores around the house to help Mom and Dad, or maybe you could help a neighbor with some of their chores. The money that you send can be used to help those who don't know Jesus learn more about Him. If you didn't receive a card, please let me know and I will give you one. We can also help our local missionaries by donating items to their organization. This coming Saturday, our church will be donating items and our time as we assist these local missions.

Finally, I would like to encourage you to pick one of the missionaries that you can write to and become a pen pal or Skype with them. It is so encouraging to the missionaries to receive letters from friends and to know that there are people who are praying for them. The guide for the Missions Conference has a list of our missionaries and I can give you their addresses or e-mail addresses.

Thank you very much for your participation in the Missions Conference and in Faith Promise.

I love you!

Mrs. Stacy

A Guide to Family Worship
February 17 - February 22

THE SIMPLEST OUTLINE FOR FAMILY TIME EVER!!!
10 EASY STEPS

- #1 Just make sure you gather once a day as a family.
- #2 Try really hard to make the same time every day.
- #3 It does not have to be long; it does not have to be perfect.
- #4 Read a Bible verse. Maybe a devotional.
- #5 Sing a song or two together.
- #6 Take prayer requests.
- #7 Pray. (Daddy, your children NEED to hear you pray.) Pray for the children; pray for missionaries; pray for Trinity Church; give thanks.
- #8 Everyone tell one thing they are thankful for.
- #9 Have a Leader of the Day: they get to read and/or pray and/or tell everyone to come gather and/or put out the Bibles/hymnals and/or tell something that happened to them that day.
- #10 Dad, pray this over your children: Numbers 6:24–26
The LORD bless you and keep you; the LORD make His face to shine upon you and be gracious to you; the LORD lift up His countenance upon you and give you peace.

Music and Hymns

#345 "Glorious Things of Thee are Spoken"

The special city of God referred to as Zion represents Jerusalem, or even God's people as a whole. This hymn speaks of God's promised protection against foes, streams of living waters (the Holy Spirit), and the lasting treasures given only to the children of God. We know we are children of God and will inherit the promises of Abraham, because Galatians 3:29 states, "And if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to promise."

#469 "How Sweet and Awesome is the Place"

Written by Isaac Watts, this one dates back to the year 1707. Read the story of the invited guests in Luke 14 to better understand this hymn. The gathering place (perhaps the church) of saved Christians is what he refers to as "a sweet and awesome place." And were it not for Christ's drawing us to Him, we would be lost forever!

"Glorious things are said of you, O city of God."
