Just a word from Mr. Mac

Claude E. McRoberts, III • Senior Minister

Dear Children,

I hope you'll notice something different in the Children's Bulletin this morning:

There are no questions this week, but please pay attention to the family worship section with suggestions about what you can do as a family each night of the week.

When my children were your age (we actually sometimes still do it this way), my favorite night was Saturday night.

EVERYONE in the family would lie down with our faces to the ground. This shows great respect to God. And we would put our hands together in the middle. But, because we have five people in our family, and furniture in the den where we usually pray together, we didn't all fit perfectly. So, Claude Mc may be facing one way, and Nan another and Abbey another. But the goal was that everyone was touching everyone else in the family.

It was fun. Abbey's leg may be touching Nan's arm; and her left hand may be holding her mother's arm, while her right hand was holding mine; and her other leg may be touching Claude Mc's head. But everyone had to be touching everyone else in the family. And we would wait, asking: "Okay, is everyone touching everyone in the family?" Then we would pray for the next day: for Daddy as he preaches, for Sunday School, for help getting up in the morning, for good sleep, etc.

I hope you have fun getting together with your family for times of Bible reading and prayer.

Love,

Mr. Mac

peace.

#2 Try really hard to make the same time every day. #3 It does not have to be long; it does not have to be perfect. Read a Bible verse. Maybe a devotional. #4 #5 Sing a song or two together. #6 Take prayer requests. #7 Pray. (Daddy, your children NEED to hear you pray.) Pray for the children; pray for missionaries; pray for Trinity Church; give thanks. Everyone tell one thing they are thankful for. #8 Have a Leader of the Day: they get to read and/or pray and/ #9 or tell everyone to come gather and/or put out the Bibles/ hymnals and/or tell something that happened to them that day. #10 Dad, pray this over your children: Numbers 6:24–26 The LORD bless you and keep you; the LORD make His face to shine upon you and be gracious to you: the LORD lift up His countenance upon you and give you

Music and Hymns

#252 "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross"

Do you ever stop to take a real close look at the cross and what it meant for Jesus to have to die on that terrible instrument of torture for your very own sins? Many people don't like to think about the price Christ had to pay because those thoughts are just too painful. We might not be murderers or thieves, but we all have pride in our hearts. "Sorrow and love flow mingled down" means that as He was dying for us, He had the mixed emotions of love and sorrow at the same time.

In the 4th verse, we see where Isaac Watts, the hymn writer, concludes that "love so amazing and divine demands our soul, our life, OUR ALL!"

#642 "Be Thou My Vision"

The author of this hymn is asking Christ to be several things. The things he asks of the Lord are wonderful and they are things He promises to be to us. Why don't you ask Jesus to be those things to you too? He will! Pray to the Lord: Lord, be thou "my vision," "Lord of my heart," "my wisdom," "my true word," "my great Father," "my battle shield," "my dignity...my delight... my soul's shelter," "my inheritance," "my treasure," and "Heart of my own heart." Jesus longs for you to follow Him!

But far be it from me to boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to Me, and I to the world.
