Just a word from Mr. Mac

Claude E. McRoberts III • Senior Minister

Dear Children,

The following story as told by Mark Flackler, has really meant a lot to me. I'll be telling some of this story this morning in my sermon. Has someone's comment to you ever changed your life? One sentence you'll never forget?

This is what happened to Dwight L. Moody when a friend said to him: "The world has yet to see what God can do with a man fully consecrated to him." That changed his life forever. He took that in as his motto for life.

You probably also need to know too that this morning we will recognize some men who will serve us as elders and deacons. These are men who are gifted at shepherding us and serving us. These men (the elders) teach us, watch over us, pray for us, run to us when we are in trouble, are present when tragedy comes, and are behind the scenes praying and leading our church when we don't even know it. They are shepherds, and Jesus is the Chief Shepherd.

The other men (the deacons) are servants – a very high calling! Jesus was the ultimate servant, and these men act like Jesus before us. They take care of our church building and grounds; they make sure we spend our money faithfully; they help people in need; they show mercy to those who need mercy; they are very godly, spiritual men who put others ahead of themselves; they help the elderly and the widows and the poor; and these men too do so much behind the scenes that we never see ... but they did it.

It's actually a very exciting day in the life of our church. Communion is served tonight!

I love you,

Mr. Mac

Suggested Topics and Scriptures from the Morning Sermon

1. What does "vital" mean? Important, yes; but more. LIFE! When do we use the word (Vital Signs; Vital Organs)? What is a "vital church?"
2. In what ways does Satan attack the Church? In our text this morning, Satan attacked in "division." Discuss.
3. What was the solution to the problem of neglecting widows and the needy? And what was the solution to the problem of getting the Apostles back to what they were called to do: preach and pray? (Same answer).
4. Do you ever complain? What does it mean to murmur? Why is complaining and murmuring and grumbling so disappointing to God?
5. The seven men who stepped up and helped: what did they do to relieve the Apostles? Whom did they serve? How?
6. How can you be a servant in the Church? Who do you know in need? What gifts has God given you to help out in the Church?
7. Who was the greatest servant of all? What did He do to serve you? How can you say "thank You" to Him?

Do you have a:

Prayer Request? Is there something you need prayer for?

Praise Report? Has God answered a prayer?

Music and Hymns

#642 "Be Thou My Vision"

The author of this hymn is asking Christ to be several things.

The things he asks of the Lord are wonderful and they are things He promises to be to us. Why don't you ask Jesus to be those things to you too? He will! Pray to the Lord: Lord, be thou "my vision," "Lord of my heart," "my wisdom," "my true word," "my great Father," "my battle shield," "my dignity...my delight... my soul's shelter," "my inheritance," "my treasure," and "Heart of my own heart." Jesus longs for you to follow Him!

"10,000 Reasons"

The writer of this song says that there are 10,000 reasons for us to praise God. Write out some of the reasons you worship God:

"Whatever was to my profit I now consider loss for the sake of Christ."
