Just a word from Mr. Kurt

Kurt Cooper • Minister to Youth

Dear Children,

Have you ever copied someone? Copying can be a fun game. Our younger son, Grayson thinks it's hilarious when he copies me or when I copy him. Maybe you've played a game like that with your family. The two pictures below are very similar but they aren't perfect copies. Can you tell the difference?

SPOT THE DIFFERENCE

Can you spot the 10 differences between these two pictures?

This morning we're reading a passage of the Bible where Jesus tells His disciples He wants them to be servants. What do you think it means to serve someone? Maybe you can ask your parents what they think it means. When you serve someone, you think about what they want or need before you think about what you want or need. Some people don't like to serve because they would rather think about themselves than others. That is called selfishness and all of us can be selfish from time to time. But Jesus has called us to be servants.

What are some ways you can serve your siblings, parents, grandparents, classmates or teachers? You might let someone else go ahead of you in line. You might offer to help your mom or dad clean up from dinner. There are many opportunities to serve someone everyday. Jesus wants us to serve others because Jesus, Himself, is a servant. When we serve others we are following His example. Just like the picture above, we can never be perfect copies of Jesus, but He is calling us to serve like He served.

Today we will be ordaining and installing elders and deacons. These are men who will serve us and lead us in the coming years. Would you please pray for them? Sometimes it can difficult to serve in the church, but we can all help by praying for our servant leaders. I trust that each of you will find ways to serve others like Jesus serves you.

In Christ,

Kurt

Meet Our Missionaries!

Third Millenium Ministries

Thirdmill was envisioned by Janie Pillow as she came to realize that Christian leaders around the world needed to be trained in their own lands. With the help of Dr. Richard Pratt and a number of others who shared her vision, Thirdmill was launched in 1997 to create free, high quality multimedia curriculum for Christian leaders around the world. Today, Thirdmill employs a team of over 50 full-time and part-time employees, as well as translators all over the world. Their curriculum is produced in 22 languages. Partner ministries around the world create the others by translating Third Millennium's productions. In these languages and others, their curriculum currently reaches millions of church leaders.

Music and Hymns

642 "Be Thou My Vision"

The author of this hymn is asking Christ to be several things.

The things he asks of the Lord are wonderful and they are things He promises to be to us. Why don't you ask Jesus to be those things to you too? He will! Pray to the Lord: Lord, be thou "my vision," "Lord of my heart," "my wisdom," "my true word," "my great Father," "my battle shield," "my dignity...my delight...my soul's shelter," "my inheritance," "my treasure," and "Heart of my own heart." Jesus longs for you to follow Him!

"10,000 Reasons"

The writer of this song says that there are 10,000 reasons for us to praise God. Write out some of the reasons you worship God:

"Whatever was to my profit I now consider loss for the sake of Christ."
