MISSIONS

Just a word from Mr. Mac

Claude E. McRoberts III • Senior Minister

Dear Children,

I'm so excited about this month of worship services, sermons and missionary reports!

Do you like when missionaries come to speak to us and tell us about their work overseas? I know I do. When I was your age, I LOVED missionaries. I thought they were fascinating. I still remember missionary Sara Cox; she was so funny. I remember missionary Jim Patterson; he always came dressed in his South American jungle uniform. (We still support him here at Trinity after many decades.)

Do you have special missionaries you think about a lot? Pray for? Enjoy listening to?

Do you know missionaries who have children your age, and do you know them?

Who is your favorite missionary? And where do they serve?

I think everyone, including children your age, should pray and ask God if He wants them to serve as a missionary. As a Christian child, consider where you might go when you grow up. Will you stay in the United States, or do you think God might call you to another country to tell people about Jesus?

What is your favorite place in all the world? How can you pray for them?

I love you. And I know God is going to use you right where He has you today!!

Mr. Mac

Suggested questions for Mom and Dad to use:

1. Read through Mr. Mac's letter to the children. Answer the questions.
2. Spend time praying for Mr. Funderburk.
3. Talk about what missionaries do.
4. Discuss as parents where you might could take your children one day on a mission trip. Our church often provides opportunities for families to go on missions trips together. Many fathers have taken each child on at least one mission trip before they go to college. (God will provide the money.)
5. In what ways do Christians bless the nations? In what ways do we know God cares about the nations?
6. Do you know God cares about you? Why or why not?

Do you have a:

Prayer Request? Is there something you need prayer for?

Praise Report? Has God answered a prayer?

Is there anything else you would like Mr. Mac to know?

Mr. Mac wants to know!!

Please write to him here and place your message in his box.

Meet Our Missionaries!

Greg & Julieann

Greg and Julieann went to Siberia with two young sons in 1994 to work among an Unreached People Group in that remote, frozen land. They established a church plant that has grown over the years into a network of churches. Later, Greg became part of the leadership team that strategically focuses on other unreached people groups across the Asian region in places that are not open to normal missions efforts. Their multidisciplinary teams of two or three couples and single Christ followers who work in each location bring business development, medical, educational and linguistic skills to bear with the long term intent of evangelizing, discipling, Bible translation and church planting. The ultimate goal in each location is to establish a locally lead, self-sustaining church movement that will bear witness to the Gospel within that culture.

Music and Hymns

#469 "How Sweet and Awesome Is the Place"

Written by Isaac Watts, this one dates back to the year 1707.

Read the story of the invited guests in Luke 14 to better understand this hymn. The gathering place (perhaps the church) of saved Christians is what he refers to as "a sweet and awesome place." And were it not for Christ's drawing us to Him, we would be lost forever!

#53 "Praise to the Lord, the Almighty"

This hymn is so encouraging! The Lord blesses us with so many things. He is our health and salvation, He shelters us, He grants our desires, He prospers our work, He defends us, He made us, He guides us, He gives us relief. Thank Him with praise and adoration! What has He blessed you with?

"Praise the Lord, O my soul;
all my inmost being, praise His holy Name."
Psalm 103:1
