Just a word from Mrs. Stacy

Stacy Hamilton • Director of Children's Ministries

Dear Children,

Today's sermon text is taken from the New Testament book of John. A little background on John: he was one of Jesus's 12 disciples and was also called "the disciple whom Jesus loved." John saw the things Jesus did and knew him very well. The book of John is the last of the 4 Gospels. The disciple John also wrote 3 letters in the New Testament and another very well known New Testament book. Can you name them?

In today's text taken from John 9, the disciples bring a man who had been born blind to Jesus. The disciples assumed that since this man was born blind, either he or his parents must have sinned. Jesus tells the disciples that neither had sinned and then restores the man's eyesight. Jesus also tells them that "...this happened so that the work of God might be displayed in his life."

Listen carefully today as Mr. Curles answers questions about our brokenness and how Jesus provides the healing for our brokenness.

I hope you'll join us for our annual Reformation Party on Saturday, October 30th, at 4:30 pm. Lots of fun activities for you and your family, some great music, and some treats!! I hope to see you there!!

Love,

Mrs. Stacy

The LORD bless you and keep you; the LORD make His face to shine upon you and be gracious to you the LORD lift up His countenance upon you and give you peace.

Meet Our Missionaries!

Argyris and Dina Petrou
Athens, Greece

Dr. Argyris Petrou is a professor at the Greek Bible College where he has helped prepare many young men and women for ministry in Greece and southeastern Europe. He is an ordained teaching elder of the Greek Evangelical Church, with pastoral experience in Toronto, Canada, Piraeus, Greece and several church plants in Athens, Greece. He is part of the leadership of the Greek Evangelical Alliance and is a published author through the Greek publishing house, O LOGOS.

Following years of being a pastor's wife and a mom, Dina began ministering to women trapped in the brothels in downtown Athens. Recently, she founded and now serves as the director of Damaris House, a ministry providing safe housing and a recovery program to survivors of trafficking and exploitation. This ministry empowers women to find freedom, walk through their journey of healing, and reintegrate into society.

Argyris and Dina Petrou have three sons: Mark, Erik, and Erastos. Mark ministers in a Roma Gypsy community with Child Evangelism Fellowship. Eric is part of the church planting leadership team of Neos Kosmos Church in Athens. Erastos is a college student. Trinity's partnership with a half dozen or more Greek pastors and church planters began through our friendship with Argyris in 2008. He has been our host for several missions trips to Athens and, in turn, visited Trinity Church several times.

Music and Hymns

#660 "O God Beyond All Praising"

This hymn really shows the true meaning of praise and worship. One large part of the praise and worship we do at church is singing. We lift up our voices to the Lord to praise and honor Him. This hymn also mentions that we marvel at His beauty, honor and adore Him, and triumph through our sorrows by offering praise through both the good and bad times. How do you praise Him?

#598 "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"

The Lord Guides us. He is our "Bread of heaven," our "strong Deliverer," and our "strength and shield." If we seek Him He will feed us spiritually, He will protect us, and He will deliver us from evil. He will guide us down the path of life. Matthew 7:14 says "For the gate is small and the way is narrow that leads to life, and there are few who find it." Jesus is the way, the truth, and the life. Trust in Him and ask him to guide you!

"He will be our guide even to the end."

Psalm 48:14
