Just a word from Mr. Michael

Michael Howell • Minister of Pastoral Care

My friends,

Here is part of a story which I plan to tell in the sermon on November 7. It is a story about John Paton. Paton was a Presbyterian missionary. The people to whom he went lived on the New Hebrides islands, which is close to Australia. The people were known as cannibals. Perhaps you can ask your mom or dad “what is a cannibal?”

When Paton arrived on the islands, the people on the islands did not like him! They wanted him to leave. After being there only a short time, the natives decided that if he would not leave them alone, then they would kill him. His life was constantly in danger. Sometimes he and his family had to hide from the natives. But God protected him and his family.

Finally, a few of the natives became Christians. They wanted to help Paton translate the Bible into the language of the people of the islands. When the people had a Bible in their language, then things began to change. They wanted to help Paton do his mission work.

One time, a terrible storm (a strong hurricane) came. It was so powerful that it destroyed the villages on the islands, including the home of the missionaries. But a strange thing happened. At this time, the people of the islands loved Paton and his family so much, they helped him rebuild his home because they wanted him to stay. They wanted him to continue to tell them about the Lord Jesus Christ.

Years later, a famous preacher in London, named Charles Spurgeon, called Paton “The King of the Cannibals”! Spurgeon called him that because Paton brought the Gospel of King Jesus Christ to people who did not know Him.

If you have any questions about this story, please let me know.

Yours truly,

Mr. Michael

Music and Hymns

#100 "Holy, Holy, Holy!"

This hymn speaks of a time when ALL of God's creatures "in earth and sky and sea" will praise His name. Even the "Cherubim and Seraphim," the angels, will bow and worship Him in heaven. All men, angels, animals, and living things will praise God. Isn't it going to be wonderful?!

#358 "For All the Saints"

This hymn reminds us that, as believers, we are also soldiers in Christ who fight against evil. The Lord is our captain, our light, our rock, and our fortress.

We have to keep fighting for what is right and against evil until the day that Jesus returns and evil is defeated once and for all!

"They will rest from their labor,
for their deeds will follow them."
