The Lord's Prayer

Our Father Which art in Heaven, hallowed by Thy Name.
Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil:
for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever.
Amen.

A GUIDE TO Family Worship

"Give ear, O my people, to my teaching; incline your ears to the words of my mouth! I will open my mouth in a parable; I will utter dark sayings from of old, things that we have heard and know, that our fathers have told us. We will not hide them from their children, but tell them to the coming generation the glorious deeds of the LORD, and his might, and the wonders that he has done." Psalm 78:4

Parents, you have the joyful responsibility to teach the next generation the glorious deeds of the Lord. Use this list as a simple guide to help your family worship time.

1. Try to gather once a day as a family. Try to make it the same time and place every day.
2. It does not have to be long; it does not have to be perfect.
3. Read scripture from the Bible, sing a song or two, pray. Pray for the children; pray for missionaries; pray for Trinity Church; give thanks.
4. Everyone tell one thing they are thankful for.
5. Have a Leader of the Day: they get to read and/or pray and/or tell everyone to come gather and/or put out the Bibles/hymnals and/or tell something that happened to them that day.
6. Additional options: read a devotion or Bible story book in addition to scripture, read through a particular book of the Bible and work your way through the entire Bible, take prayer request or take turns praying, review memory work and catechism questions.
7. Parents, pray this over your children:

The LORD bless you and keep you; the LORD make His face to shine upon you and be gracious to you the LORD lift up His countenance upon you and give you peace. Numbers 6:24-26

Music and Hymns

“Alleluia! Sing to Jesus!”

In reading the text for Alleluia, Sing to Jesus!, we are reminded that hymn texts are written as poetry with phrases that make us use our imagination in order to understand. Phrases like: “hark, the songs of peaceful Zion thunder like a mighty flood” and “earth Thy footstool, heav'n Thy throne” are not meant to be taken literally. It's not as if songs can really make a flood, like water does. But by imagining a mighty rushing flood, we can see how powerful and strong, and endless will be our songs in heaven. It's not as if God has feet, and He rests them on our planet earth. No, that term is used to make us understand how small the earth is in comparison to God, and how He is so much higher and greater than we can even imagine!

“I Greet Thee, Who My Sure Redeemer Art”

This hymn is has a gentle, sweet melody, but don't let that fool you into thinking it deals with small ideas! As you sing these words, you can see that almost every verse is describing God - His character, and His actions towards us. These are important and really amazing truths. The last verse is not so much a description of God, so much as it is a prayer, that this amazing God would help us in doing everything He calls us to do.

*“All You have made will praise You, O Lord;
Your saints will extol You.”*

Psalm 145:10
