The Lord's Prayer

Our Father Which art in Heaven, hallowed by Thy Name.
Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil:
for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever.
Amen.

A GUIDE TO Family Worship

"Give ear, O my people, to my teaching; incline your ears to the words of my mouth! I will open my mouth in a parable; I will utter dark sayings from of old, things that we have heard and know, that our fathers have told us. We will not hide them from their children, but tell them to the coming generation the glorious deeds of the LORD, and his might, and the wonders that he has done." Psalm 78:4

Parents, you have the joyful responsibility to teach the next generation the glorious deeds of the Lord. Use this list as a simple guide to help your family worship time.

1. Try to gather once a day as a family. Try to make it the same time and place every day.
2. It does not have to be long; it does not have to be perfect.
3. Read scripture from the Bible, sing a song or two, pray. Pray for the children; pray for missionaries; pray for Trinity Church; give thanks.
4. Everyone tell one thing they are thankful for.
5. Have a Leader of the Day: they get to read and/or pray and/or tell everyone to come gather and/or put out the Bibles/hymnals and/or tell something that happened to them that day.
6. Additional options: read a devotion or Bible story book in addition to scripture, read through a particular book of the Bible and work your way through the entire Bible, take prayer request or take turns praying, review memory work and catechism questions.
7. Parents, pray this over your children:

The LORD bless you and keep you; the LORD make His face to shine upon you and be gracious to you the LORD lift up His countenance upon you and give you peace. Numbers 6:24-26

MEET OUR Missionaries

"And He said to them, 'Go into all the world and proclaim the gospel to the whole creation'" Mark 16:15

Music and Hymns

"Alleluia! Sing to Jesus"

In the glorious hymn, "Alleluia! Sing to Jesus!" author William C. Dix invites us to sing that new song of praise to our ascended Savior. This hymn is a declaration of Jesus' victory over death and his continued presence among his people. When a friend moves away or leaves us for a long time, our first response is to feel sad and lonely. In this hymn, however, Dix reminds us that though Christ physically left earth in the ascension, he does not leave us "as orphans" but rather remains with us always, all the while interceding for us to the Father. And so we raise our voices to cry "Alleluia!" to the ascended, yet ever-present Christ.

"Hail the Day that Sees Him Rise"

This hymn elaborates on the royalty and sovereignty of the ascended Christ, to which Mark alluded in his gospel: "So then the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken to them, was taken up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of God" (Mark 16:19 ESV). The second stanza refers to one of the royal psalms: "Lift up your heads, O gates! And lift them up, O ancient doors, that the King of glory may come in" (Psalm 24:9 ESV).

*"All You have made will praise You, O Lord;
Your saints will extol You."*

Psalm 145:10
