The Lord's Prayer

Our Father Which art in Heaven, hallowed by Thy Name.
Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil:
for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever.
Amen.

A GUIDE TO Family Worship

"Give ear, O my people, to my teaching; incline your ears to the words of my mouth! I will open my mouth in a parable; I will utter dark sayings from of old, things that we have heard and know, that our fathers have told us. We will not hide them from their children, but tell them to the coming generation the glorious deeds of the LORD, and his might, and the wonders that he has done." Psalm 78:4

Parents, you have the joyful responsibility to teach the next generation the glorious deeds of the Lord. Use this list as a simple guide to help your family worship time.

1. Try to gather once a day as a family. Try to make it the same time and place every day.
2. It does not have to be long; it does not have to be perfect.
3. Read scripture from the Bible, sing a song or two, pray. Pray for the children; pray for missionaries; pray for Trinity Church; give thanks.
4. Everyone tell one thing they are thankful for.
5. Have a Leader of the Day: they get to read and/or pray and/or tell everyone to come gather and/or put out the Bibles/hymnals and/or tell something that happened to them that day.
6. Additional options: read a devotion or Bible story book in addition to scripture, read through a particular book of the Bible and work your way through the entire Bible, take prayer request or take turns praying, review memory work and catechism questions.
7. Parents, pray this over your children:

The LORD bless you and keep you; the LORD make His face to shine upon you and be gracious to you the LORD lift up His countenance upon you and give you peace. Numbers 6:24-26

MEET OUR Missionaries

"And He said to them, 'Go into all the world and proclaim the gospel to the whole creation'" Mark 16:15

Jim and Anna and Children Sensitive Location

Jim and Anna work to share the gospel with Uyghurs. The Uyghurs (also spelled Uighur) are a predominantly Muslim group numbering between 12 and 14 million. They primarily live in Northwest China in the province of Xinjiang, with a few hundred thousand living in other countries such as Kazakhstan and Turkey. They are one of the most unreached groups in the world. There are hundreds of Uyghur villages that have no witness of Christ; however, there are likely over 3,000 Uyghurs who have put their faith in Jesus. Any fellowship gathering of them in China would be illegal and therefore kept secret. The entire Bible has been translated into Uyghur.

Music and Hymns

“The Church’s One Foundation”

This hymn also speaks of the church as a city with a foundation built on Christ the Lord. What else do you see the church compared to in verse 1 of this hymn? Verse 2 then tells us how the elect are really one people bound by one holy name, one holy food, and one hope, even though we might live all over the world. Verse 3 tells how the world views the church and describes the hardships we, the saints, must endure, but then assures us we, the church, shall never perish!

“Holy Spirit, Living Breath of God”

The hymn Holy Spirit, Living Breath of God, is a prayer to the third person of the Trinity, the Holy Spirit. If we look at the words of the hymn, we can learn a lot about how the Holy Spirit works in our hearts and lives. In the first verse, there is a beautiful line: “Cause your Word to come alive in me; give me faith for what I cannot see.” There are so many times we cannot see the way that God works, but we know that He is trustworthy and good because of what we see in His Word. Only the work of the Holy Spirit helps that Word come alive in us and gives us faith in Him, not our own understanding.

*“All You have made will praise You, O Lord;
Your saints will extol You.”*

Psalm 145:10
