The Lord's Prayer

Our Father Which art in Heaven, hallowed by Thy Name.
Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil:
for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever.
Amen.

The Announcements

Use the space below to write down the names of people and church events that you want to pray for this week.

The Offering

Each one must give as he has decided in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. 2 Corinthians 9:7

A GUIDE TO Family Worship

"Give ear, O my people, to my teaching; incline your ears to the words of my mouth! I will open my mouth in a parable; I will utter dark sayings from of old, things that we have heard and know, that our fathers have told us. We will not hide them from their children, but tell them to the coming generation the glorious deeds of the LORD, and his might, and the wonders that he has done." Psalm 78:4

Parents, you have the joyful responsibility to teach the next generation the glorious deeds of the Lord. Use this list as a simple guide to help your family worship time.

1. Try to gather once a day as a family. Try to make it the same time and place every day.
2. It does not have to be long; it does not have to be perfect.
3. Read scripture from the Bible, sing a song or two, pray. Pray for the children; pray for missionaries; pray for Trinity Church; give thanks.
4. Everyone tell one thing they are thankful for.
5. Have a Leader of the Day: they get to read and/or pray and/or tell everyone to come gather and/or put out the Bibles/hymnals and/or tell something that happened to them that day.
6. Additional options: read a devotion or Bible story book in addition to scripture, read through a particular book of the Bible and work your way through the entire Bible, take prayer request or take turns praying, review memory work and catechism questions.
7. Parents, pray this over your children:

The LORD bless you and keep you; the LORD make His face to shine upon you and be gracious to you the LORD lift up His countenance upon you and give you peace. Numbers 6:24-26

MEET OUR Missionaries

"And He said to them, 'Go into all the world and proclaim the gospel to the whole creation'" Mark 16:15

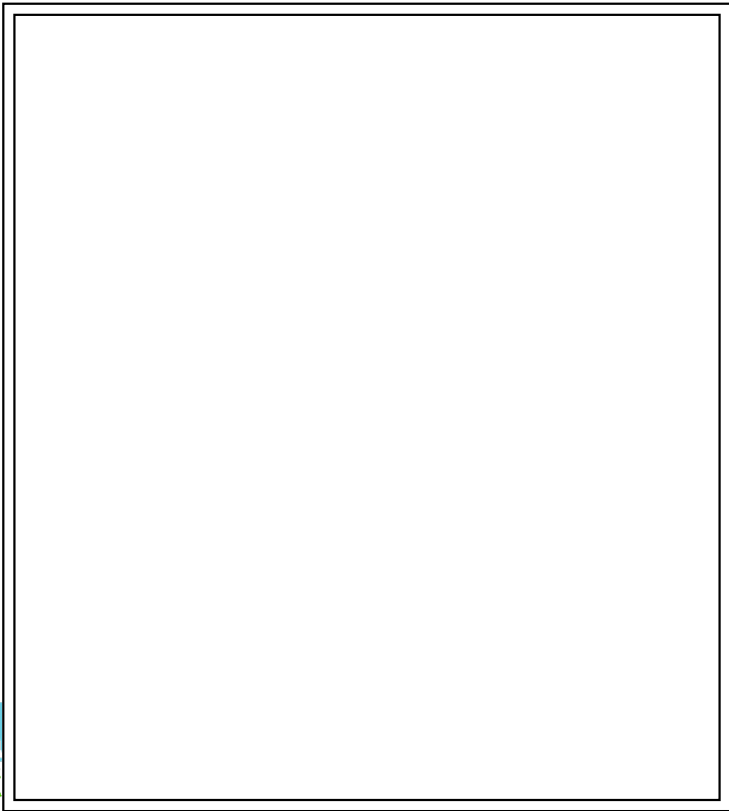

Reformed University Fellowship International

Reformed University Fellowship (RUF) was established in 1971 at the University of Southern Mississippi by Mark Lowery. Eventually, RUF expanded nationally and today is available on over one hundred campuses. RUF has also expanded internationally, with campuses in Colombia, Mexico, Ukraine, and the Czech Republic. RUF seeks to create a fellowship of students where every person, regardless of background, personal history, or conviction, can examine the true claims of Reformed Christianity in a non-threatening atmosphere. Their fellowship on campus is not limited to those who have a prior commitment to being Reformed, Presbyterian, or even Christian.

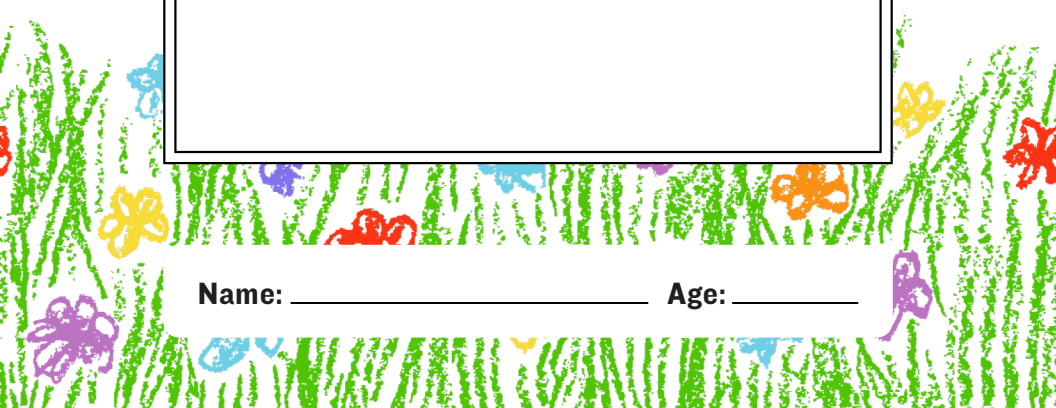

Sermon Art

Use this page to illustrate something that you heard during the sermon this morning! This weeks lesson is on Psalm 51.

Music and Hymns

“O God Beyond All Praising”

This hymn really shows the true meaning of praise and worship. One large part of the praise and worship we do at church is singing. We lift up our voices to the Lord to praise and honor Him. This hymn also mentions that we marvel at His beauty, honor and adore Him, and triumph through our sorrows by offering praise through both the good and bad times. How do you praise Him?

“Dear Refuge of My Weary Soul”

The author of this hymn, Anne Steele, lost her mother early in life and suffered many illnesses. Despite this, she was a bright and cheerful woman. In this hymn, Anne pours out her sadness to God and tells us how we can still trust in Him and find hope in Him when we are sad or going through a difficult time. It teaches us how to “complain before the ear of Sovereign Grace” and to “breathe our sorrows” before him.

*“All You have made will praise You, O Lord;
Your saints will extol You.”*

Psalm 145:10
