MORNING WORSHIP

THE SILENT MEDITATION UPON ENTERING THE SANCTUARY

Seeking God is much more active than asking God for things. The moment you realize this content to the word 'seek' you begin to see that the Apostle's statement is quite right... Prayers do not mean that we are seeking God. Seeking God means you are trying to find God, and to get into His presence....To seek God means to desire God above everything and everybody, to seek His glory, to be anxious to promote His glory. To seek God in the biblical sense means that God is the center of our thinking.

DR. DAVID MARTYN LLOYD-JONES

on Paul's statement in Romans 3:11 that "no one seeks for God."

† The Responsive Confession ~ The Heidelberg Catechism, Questions 1 and 2

Question 1: What is your only comfort in life and death?

Answer: That I, with body and soul, both in life and in death, am not my own, but belong to my faithful Savior Jesus Christ, who with His precious blood has fully satisfied for all my sins, and redeemed me from all the power of the devil; and so preserves me that without the will of my Father in heaven not a hair can fall from my head; indeed, that all things must work together for my salvation. Wherefore, by His Holy Spirit, He also assures me of eternal life, and makes me heartily willing and ready from now on to live unto Him.

Question 2: How many things are necessary for you to know, that in this comfort you may live and die happily?

Answer: Three things: First, the greatness of my sin and misery. Second, how I am redeemed from all my sins and misery. Third, how I am to be thankful to God for such redemption.

Come Down, O Love Divine

Ralph Vaughan Williams

arr. Dietterich

Chancel Choir

Come down, O Love divine. Seek thou this soul of mine, and visit it with thine own ardor glowing; O Comforter, draw near, within my heart appear, and kindle it, thy holy flames bestowing.

O Let it freely burn, till earthly passions turn to dust and ashes in its heat consuming; And let thy glorious light shine ever on my sight, and clothe me round, the while my path illuming.

And so the yearning strong with which the soul will long, shall far outpass the power of human telling; For none can guess its grace, till he become the place wherein the Holy Spirit makes his dwelling. Amen.

Apart from Grace ALL Are Lost

Exposition of Romans X

Romans 3:9-20

* A detailed sermon outline can be found inside the morning announcements.

The Silent, Personal Prayer of Confession

Sin is to dare God's justice, the rape of His mercy, the jeer of His patience, the slight of His power, the contempt of His love ~ John Bunyan.

A Word of Encouragement ~ Westminster Confession of Faith (Chapter 15:4)

As there is no sin so small, but it deserves damnation, so there is no sin so great, that it can bring damnation on those who truly repent.

The Corporate Prayer of Confession

Almighty and most merciful Father; we have erred, and strayed from Thy ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against Thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; and we have done those things which we ought not to have done; and there is no health in us. But Thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders. Spare thou those, O God, who confess their faults. Restore Thou those who are penitent, according to Thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for His sake, that we may hereafter live a holy, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of Thy holy name. Amen.
