THE SILENT MEDITATION UPON ENTERING THE SANCTUARY

We can put it this way: the man who has faith is the man who is no longer looking at himself, and no longer looking to himself. He no longer looks at anything he once was. He does not look at what he is now. He does not [even] look at what he hopes to be as the result of his own efforts. He looks entirely to the Lord Jesus Christ and His finished work, and he rests on that alone. He has ceased to say, 'Ah yes, I have committed terrible sins but I have done this and that...' He stops saying that. If he goes on saying that, he has not got faith....Faith speaks in an entirely different manner and makes a man say, 'Yes, I have sinned grievously, I have lived a life of sin...yet I know that I am a child of God because I am not resting on any righteousness of my own; my righteousness is in Jesus Christ, and God has put that to my account.'

The Anthem     He Hideth My Soul     arr. Joseph Linn
Men's Quartet

He hideth my soul in the cleft of the rock that shadows a dry, thirsty land.
He hideth my life, in the depths of His love, and covers me there with His hand.

A wonderful Savior is Jesus, my Lord, a wonderful Savior to me.
He hideth my soul in the cleft of the rock, where rivers of pleasure I see.

When clothed in His brightness, transported, I rise to meet Him in clouds of the sky,
His perfect salvation, His wonderful love I'll shout with the millions on high.

The Personal Meditation and Preparation of the Heart

The Lord’s Supper

The Invitation to and Fencing of the Table

Family of God, as we draw near to the Lord’s Supper to celebrate Holy Communion of the Body and Blood of Christ, let us be grateful and remember that our Lord instituted this sacrament as a perpetual reminder of His dying for our sakes and as a pledge of His undying love for us.

Therefore, Jesus bids us to come to Him in this sacrament in knowledge, faith, repentance, love, and with hearts hungering and thirsting for Him. If we are willingly and stubbornly living in sin, lacking peace in our relationships with others, secretly relying on our own good works for favor with God, then we are warned by God’s Word not to receive this sacrament. But all that are truly sorry for their sins and long to be delivered from the burden of them; all that are weary from brokenness and long to be filled with the life of Christ; all that are doubting and need the assuring embrace of God; all that humbly put their trust in Christ and desire His grace that they may lead a holy life; and, all that are baptized members in an evangelical church, are invited and encouraged in His name to join us in the celebration of the Lord’s Supper. Let us therefore come that we be refreshed and find rest for our souls.

If you are not in a saving relationship with God through Christ today, do not take the bread and cup, but take Christ and receive Him in your heart as those around you receive the meal. Then, immediately following the service, come and tell a minister or one of our leaders what you have done so we can prepare you to receive communion next time as a child of God.
